C. D. NEWELL, Esq., is the Democratic nomines for County Attorney. He hasn't any opposition so far, but that's no rea-son why he shouldn't get the vote of every member of the party.

The total collections of internal revenue for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1886, were over $116,900,000, an increase of more than $4,400,000 over the collections for the previous year.

Some of the Republican nominees are trying to play the "still-hunt!" racket on their opponents, but it won't work. The Democrats have been aware of their little game for several days, and are not losing any sleep in consequence thereot.

any sleep in consequence thereot.

Durning the fiscal year ending June 30, there was an increase of over $75,700,000 in the value of imports of merchandise over that of the previous year. For the same period a decrease of $82,700,000 and more is noted in the value of our exports.

The Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Congress in the Tenth district, this State, will meet at West Liberty, on the 2nd of September. Hon. W. P. Taulbee will hardly have any opposition, silhough "Cerro Gordo" William's step-son, Will Hamilton, is spoken of. spoken of.

Ir reports be true, the Republicans Ir reports be true, the Republicans have concocled a gigantle scheme to carry West Virginia at the next election, "Boodle" is to be the great wherewithal. The National Executive Committee is to furnish it to the extent of $200,000, and it is to be scattered around promiseuously in the effort to "reform" things.

Tue President, in his order to office-Tux President, in his order to office-holders to keep out of political conventions, means business. The employes of the Interior Department have received circulars containing the warning, and every postmaster in the land will be sent a circular of a similar kind in a few days. A dispheyance of the order will result in the summary discharge of the offenders. That's the talk at headquarters.

An Honor to the State.
The Lexington Transcript of last week jumps on Judge Cole, of the Maysville district, rough shod, and accuses him of not performing his duties as Circuit Judge of Rowan county. The attack is an un-just one, for as an officer of the law, there is not a more rigid prosecutor in there is not a more rigid prosecutor in Kentucky. The writer had the pleasure of casting his first vote for Judge Cole, and knows him to he a gentieman of fine intelleet, pure motives, fearless as allon, and will do his duty in every sense of the word. Such a man as he, is an honor to the State and a shining light in the Democratic party.—Jessamine Journal.

COMMUNICATED.

To the Yoters of Wushington Precinct: A vote will be tilken at the August election as to whether, or not liquor shall again be sold in this precint. We have been without it now for twelve years, are sober, steady and industrious—very much more so than those of our neighboring precincts where intoxicants have been sold during these years. No one need be told, even those who drink the ville stuff, that whisky is a curse and a blyth to any people. In view of these things, let every man who loves peace, quiet and all the virtues which are alone to vile monster a threat by voling to keep ram with all its attendant evils out our town.

An Old Citizen Speaks.

Mr. J. M. JIMBELYNCH, Charile Carr and George Wallingford started to Manchester Sunday morning in a skiff. While pulling along near the mouth of Cabin Creek they discovered the dead body of a white infant in the water. It was enclosed in a sack, and gave evidence of having been in the water several days. Decomposition had set in. The young men brought it to this city that evening on their return from Manchester, and Justice Wesley Vicroy held an inquest on the remains. Dr. McNut examined the corpse, but no marks of violence were found. There was no evidence to show that the infant had been born alive. Neither is there any claim as to its parentage. The remains were interred by Q. A. Steans & Sons yesterday afternoon. JIMMIE LYNCH, Charlie Carr and George

BUREIKA'S FORTUNE Likely to Escheat to the State.

Likely to Escheat to the State.

The probability now is that the State of Kentucky will receive from $100,000 to $150,000 by reason of the killing of "Dutch Henry" by Luther Ricketts near the Lower Blue Licks, in Robertson County, on the 14th instant. The particulars of the killing and the subsequent trial and acquital of young Ricketts are still fresh in the minds of our readers. At the time of the shooting, Burelks was said to be worth between $50,000 and $100,000. Later estimates from Mt. Olivet, however, piace his wealth at nearer $150-000. Including the property on which he had claims and mortgages, his real-estate amenuts to about 1,000 acres. The Mt. Olivet Tribune says his farms are all well improved, have good buildings, are well fenced and look clean and neat. They extend from Bee Lick to a point in Fleming County, a distance of six miles. At the time of his death, Burelks had between $8,000 and $10,000 worth of live. At the time of his death, Burelka had be

At the time of his death, Burelka had between $5,000 and $10,000 worth of live stock grazing on his lands. His other property consists of cash government bonds, and notes, stocks, &c. Burelka left no children—his marriage with, "Dutch Mary" having been fruit-less. Neither had he any relatives, so far as known at present. He tame to this country at seventeen years of age from Prussia and if he had any relatives in the old country, nothing has ever been heard of them. He may have kin in Prussia, but, if he has, they are resting in blissful ignorance of the big fortune that awaits them.

heirs, and that his estate will eachest to the Commonwealth. State Auditor Fayette Hewith has appointed David Wilson, the banker at Flemingsburg, his agent for Robertson County to take control of the property. W. A. Snddeth was appointed Mr. Wilson's attorney—and they qualifield in the County Court of Robertson, last week. Hon. O. S. Deming and a party named Cleaver have been appointed administrators, Last week two young fellows from Dayton, Ky., wanted to have themselves appointed administrators, claiming they were heirb, but it was found on investigation that they were nephews of Dutch Mary, and their request was denied. They will hardly succeed in making good their claims to the property. This is the situation at present. The probability is that the property will escheat to the State. A claimant may turn up any day, however, but if such an event should occur, long "litigation would likely result unless the proofs of his claim were strong, and conclusive." heirs, and that his estate will escheat to the Commonwealth. without it. As a liver medicine and general purifier of the blood, it has no equal.* Mrs. A. B. Allen, Winterpoek, Va., writes: "My youngest child, two years of ace, was taken with Bowel Complaint, which we could not cure. We tried many remedies, but he continued to grow worse, and finally became so reduced in fisch that we could only move him upon a pillow. It was suggested by one of the doctors that Scrotnia night be the cause of the trouble. We procured a bottle of
